

① ATAKA CAFÉ

Enjoy a meal with a breathtaking ocean view!

ATAKA CAFÉ is as close as you can get to experiencing the ocean first-hand in Komatsu. Treat yourself to a panoramic view of the Sea of Japan as you savor dishes arranged from local ingredients. Be sure to grab a seat on the terrace before sunset comes.

③ CUCINA

For agricultural-free and handmade Italian dishes.

Popular for their brick oven-baked wholewheat pizzas. With so many pastas and pizzas to choose from, customers can't help coming back to try them all. Make room for their homemade desserts (limited servings per day!) as well.

④ Nakasa Nakaten (Jonan Branch)

Soak in the traditional Japanese ambience of this Komatsu Udon specialist.

The specialty here is the nabeyaki (hotpot) udon, where soft fine noodles for soaking up the soup are mixed with thick springy noodles. They even provide matcha tea and wagashi sweets to occupy your time in style while waiting for the pot to boil.

KOMATSU RENTAL BICYCLE

Ataka Sea Station Stop

1 Komatsu Kanjincho-no-sato

Selected as one of "Japan's Top 100 Historical Parks", along the Sea of Japan lies the pine-covered Ataka Park. Statues of the historical heroes, Benkei, Yoshitsune and Togashi, tell of a famous episode that is said to have taken place at the Ataka barrier that once stood here. This tale became the subject of one of the most famous kabuki plays (that continues to be performed in Komatsu), "Kanjincho". You'll also find the Ataka Sumiyoshi Shrine, the only one in Japan to enshrine the "guardian deity of breakthroughs". Popular are the amulets granting success at overcoming life's various challenges.

2 Fureai Kenko Park

A park by the sea where you can enjoy the outdoors to your heart's content. It is also recognised as one of Japan's Lover's Sanctuaries. With just a booking, you can make full use of the pine-covered campgrounds and the furnaces, charcoal, catering and tent rental services provided. On a clear day, you may get to witness the rare "green flash" phenomenon as the sun dips into the sea!

Why ♥ Mt. Hakusan?

Along with Mt. Fuji and nearby Mt. Tateyama, Mt. Hakusan is one of Japan's "Three Holy Mountains". These mountains have been revered as Shinto deities and powerful spiritual centers since ancient times. "Haku" means "white" and refers to how the mountain's peaks remain visibly snowy year-long. Komatsu's proximity has blessed locals with the mountain's pure waters and spectacular views throughout the year!

3 Komatsu Sky Park Sports Field

Facing the runway, watch planes pass by right in front of your eyes and feel their overwhelming presence. You could also enjoy a stroll to the backdrop of the holy mountain of Hakusan.

5 Ishikawa Aviation Plaza

The only aviation museum along the Sea of Japan, where children and adults alike can see, touch and experience the world of aircraft. Apart from a one-of-a-kind simulator built into an actual NAMC YS-11 airliner, the first floor also houses the country's largest indoor playground, for the little ones! On the second floor, an exhibit of the actual VIP cabin of a former government jet (Japanese Air Force One) that was used by the Emperor and other high-ranking officials, is on display.
